6.4. Where the Client elects to extend the period of hire, the Client must give the Employment Business 7 days' notice in writing of its intention to do so.

7.2. Where the Client fails to inform the Employment Business within 14 days of the commencement of the Engagement of the annual remuneration of the Contractor, the Introduction Fee will be calculated by multiplying the hourly charge of the Employment Business

8.13. Where a Contractor is seconded outside the United Kingdom for a period of 5 days or more, the Client must obtain written consent from the Employment Business prior to the secondment taking place. If such consent is not obtained, the Client will become liable for any losses suffered by either the Employment Business or the Contractor including, without limitation, any losses relating to tax, whether directly or indirectly referable to the secondment, imposed by any body or person, statutory or local governmental authority in which the secondment is treated as having taken place.
