

The background of the entire image is a rustic, dark brown wooden surface with visible grain and knots. Four gifts wrapped in plain brown paper are scattered across the surface. Each gift is secured with a red and white striped twine, tied in a bow. The gifts vary in size and orientation: one is small and square, one is medium and rectangular, one is large and rectangular, and one is partially visible at the bottom right.

Our vision is to be the customer's first choice

At Jonathan Lee, our whole culture is built around service excellence. Our track record over four decades upholds this commitment, with more than 85% repeat business.

Our mission:

“ to deliver solutions that help people to succeed and organisations to flourish, contributing to a better future for everyone ”

Collaborate

Our people work in partnership with clients and candidates to add value and build relationships. Teamwork is central to our culture, we invest time in understanding and in leveraging individual strengths to deliver the best resourcing solutions with confidence, expertise and empathy.

Create

Working in engineering and technology, we are inspired to be creative in producing tailored solutions for our clients. We celebrate innovation in our teams, encouraging our people to be entrepreneurial, inventive and adaptable and to reach their full potential in a supportive and solution-led culture.

Care

We are committed to contributing to progress in our community and to caring about our environment, to provide a brighter future for everyone. We strive to give our people and partners a framework that encourages social connection, compassion and positivity, making work both a passion and a pleasure.

Communicate

Honesty, openness and integrity underpin everything we do. We embrace all opportunities to listen, share information, be consultative, provide advice and to develop knowledge, intelligence and insight that benefits clients, candidates, contractors and co-workers.

Saving you money and saving you time

“ Our partnership with Jonathan Lee Recruitment as a Master Vendor solution has focused and streamlined the way we manage our recruitment supply chain and our working contractor base with great effect.

Jonathan Lee's account management team has gone to considerable efforts to understand our business and the way it operates, using this knowledge to project an informed and comprehensive picture of TMETC when acting on our behalf.

The efficacy of the MV model in highlighting opportunities for improvement in our own operating processes, particularly with regards to finance and purchasing, has also exceeded my expectations. ”

James Billingham, TMETC

Recruitment takes time.

Whether you are recruiting a new project team, for a new site or need help managing your whole recruitment process, by forming a strategic relationship with you we are able to build bespoke service that offers all the benefits of our unrivalled recruitment infrastructure and technology stack, whilst focusing on the key areas that are most important to your business.

With over 40 years' experience in recruitment management you will be able to draw on our specialist consultancy knowledge to gain the buy-in of your management stakeholders, and, ultimately to benefit from the highest quality people for your business.
